• An action project can be undertaken with a different product for generating income with adolescent girls and women from another community of low socio economic status community.

➢ OUTCOME
2. Out of the total ten adolescent girls and women eight of them were able to make beads jewellery.
3. All the adolescent girls and women were able to learn or understand about the various skills of marketing.
4. All the adolescent girls and women were able to learn about buying raw material and wholesalers’ shop.
5. Trained Selected Adolescent Girls And Women For The Following Beads Jewellery Products Making:
   a) Small Earrings
   b) Small Beads Earrings
   c) Big Beads Earrings
   d) Big Beads Set
   e) Five Line Beads Set
   f) Quelling Earrings

➢ CONCLUSION
• The project helped the women to render a helping hand in the family income and also helped them to become economically independent.
• The women got an opportunity to communicate to the customers through the exhibition conducted at different places.

• The project helped the women in obtaining the professional abilities for making publicity, conducting exhibitions, contacting shops and for sale of the beads jewellery.
• The project provided the selected adolescent girls and women with an opportunity for expression of their potentials and at the same time a feeling of personal satisfaction.

➢ BIBLIOGRAPHY

---

Dr. Anuradha Mathu Assistant Professor and Guide, Ms. Arbina Bandwala Project Worker
Dept. of Extension and Communication
The M. S. University of Baroda Vadodara 390002
Ph No: 2655372 (Res), Mob: 9824071005
Office: 2795522

---

SUBSCRIPTION INFORMATION

Inland
Single Copy Rs. 10/-
Annual Rs. 100/-
Combined Subscription of Social Welfare & Samaj Kalyan Rs. 160/-

Foreign Air Mail (Annual)
Neighbouring Countries (Bangladesh, Sri Lanka, Nepal, Bhutan & Pakistan) Rs. 400/- (US $ 14)
Other Countries Rs. 1200/- (US $ 40)
Life Membership - Single Rs. 1000/-
Combined Life Membership Rs. 1600/-

• The amount can be sent by demand draft/bankers cheque in the name of Pay & Accounts Officer, Central Social Welfare Board giving your name & address in full
• In case of non-receipt of journal or any other complaint always quote your subscription number.